

Site 5– Bignall End Cricket Club and Playing Fields

Site Details
Site name	Grid ref	Description and purpose
Playing Space – Bignall End Cricket Club	Boon Hill Road, Bignall End	Bignall End Cricket Club – Teams are made up of local residents competing in the local leagues. Club used for recreational and social purposes.
Checklist
Statutory designations (e.g. SSSI)	Site allocations (give details)	Planning permissions (give details)
None	Identified as "Not required to meet local standards" within the current Local Plan	Not applicable at time this was created.

NPPF Criteria
Close to the community it serves	Demonstrably special to local community (beauty, historic significance, recreational value, tranquillity, wildlife, or other)	Local in character and not extensive tract
Yes located next to residential properties and serves the community for different purposes.	Site holds play and recreational value for local residents, providing local resident’s access to play/watch cricket. Site is used for local community/personal events periodically. Located at the south of Bignall End, this is described as a friendly and progressive club recruiting for teams of junior beginners to seasoned campaigners. There is a clubhouse and bar plus a function room, with a bar and kitchen, that can be hired for all occasions. The club organises quizzes, discos, live music and beer festivals as well as running a coach to a local football ground for their home matches. They are affiliated to the NHS. Their ground is used for camping events. Open to members and the public every day. Matches are generally played on weekends. A great asset to the community in terms of social and sporting events.	Yes

Location Plan:

Images:

